Who We Are

We are 3rd party commodity inventory management Company. focusing on African commodities to the world and commodities from the rest of the world to Africa. As a warehousing company across the continent, AWHL offers storage facilities for all types of commodities for both individuals and institutions.

With state of the art equipment and the latest technology, AWHL works to ensure your valuables' quality is maintained as they are stored with us waiting for either sale or pick up.

The quality of your goods is our core business and our first priority is to ensure you have peace of mind and a hustle free time as you seek for a market or transit your goods and we are working 24/7 to ensure your trust in us is not futile.

In agriculture, commodity storage is used to store crops such as grains, cereals and fibre . The storage facilities are designed to protect the crops from moisture, pests and other environmental factors that can cause spoilage.

The storage facilities may also have temperature control systems to maintain the quality of the crops.

Our Mission

To provide reliable collateral-backed warehouse receipts through world-class storage solutions, cutting-edge technology, and exceptional customer service, ensuring trust and value for our stakeholders.

Our Vision

Be a helper to not just the big corporations and government but also to the common individuals.

Warehousing of Agricultural Goods

At AWHL, we specialize in providing advanced warehousing solutions for agricultural commodities such as grains, cereals, and fibers.

Our state-of-the-art facilities are equipped with the latest technology, including temperature control systems, to ensure that your crops are stored in optimal conditions.

We prioritize the protection of your products from moisture, pests, and other environmental factors, preserving their quality while awaiting sale or distribution.

Whether you are a small-scale farmer or a large institution, AWHL offers secure, reliable storage that helps you manage your inventory, connect with markets, and maximize the value of your agricultural produce.

A link to Markets and Traders

At AWHL, we go beyond warehousing by offering comprehensive services that link agricultural producers to global markets and traders.

Our extensive network and logistical expertise ensure that your commodities reach the right buyers, whether locally or internationally.

We understand the complexities of market access, so we provide tailored solutions that connect you with reliable traders, helping you maximize the value of your products.

By bridging the gap between farmers and markets, AWHL supports your efforts in achieving successful sales, fostering growth, and expanding your reach in the global trade landscape.

Trade Finance and Settlement

At AWHL, we partner with licenced financial institutions to offer specialized Trade Finance and Settlement services designed to support businesses in navigating the complexities of international trade.

The Licenced Financial Institutions provide financial flexibility, enabling you to manage your cash flow while your commodities are in storage or transit.

Whether you are an exporter or importer, we facilitate the smooth execution of trade agreements by handling payment settlements, credit arrangements, and ensuring secure financial transactions.

With AWHL's expertise, you can confidently trade across borders, knowing that your financial operations are streamlined and your commodities are in safe hands.
